

MACKEREL FLEET HAD GOOD DAY

THREE OFF-SHORE DRAGGERS ALSO IN WITH FARES FOR FILETING.

Mackerel druggers found unusually good fishing Wednesday night, and yesterday morning, many of the fleet had thousands of pounds below decks holding them over for today's market. Several of the boats went to Boston with their fares, where they sold for 7 cents a pound.

Fresh fish receipts this morning were brought in by three of the off-shore dragging fleet, coming from Boston for the General Seafoods Corporation for fileting. Only a few of the gill netters fished yesterday but the receipts were good, being over 350,000 pounds.
